

SCREAMING

Love? Anger? Does not change the scene
We are in a film, which transports as with
its plot,

Without revealing the end

Crude politics, create an impossible family.

We are the working class created to be juiced!

Men left alone, lost for gambling!

You do the hunger, but to play poker the money there are!

Have you ever wondered how life works?

Did you have time to do that?

We are not prepared for this

Everything runs too fast

You gave me too much love and now

Unconsciously you're taking it off.

What am I?

The toy on which to download your frustrations?

I don't realize that you kill people and

don't save them
In this life you must to lie

Selling the soul to the Devil to Chase a dream that will still
Be taken away
What are
We serving?
I want to ask you a stupid question!
Have you ever wondered why I am so?
